Sanenu means dew in the Sardinian dialect. This design finds its inspiration in nature, from the discrete and delicate drops of water gently sitting on grass blades creating an irregular yet beautiful texture. Handwoven on horizontal looms according to the most traditional Sardinian weaving technique, the Sanenu rug is made of the finest mulberry silk combined with an organic alpaca wool blend cord. Resembling tiny drops of water, Sanenu is taking us to those silent early hours of the morning when nature awakens and an aura of mystery transforms meadows in magical places.
